

Mahjong Simplified

BY MEHR PATNI MODI

What is Mahjong?

Mahjong is a tile-based strategy game played by four players.

To win:

Form a complete hand of 14 tiles using valid combinations (sets and a pair), according to the rules of the round being played.

Mahjong combines strategy, observation, memory, and luck.

Tiles & Components

Suited Tiles (108 tiles)

Each suit has numbers 1 to 9, with 4x tiles of each number.

- Bamboos (Boo)
- Characters (Cracks)
- Rings

(Note: Bamboo 1 is usually depicted as a bird.)

Honour Tiles

Dragons

Red Dragon ×4

Green Dragon ×4

White Dragon ×4

Winds

East ×4

South ×4

West ×4

North ×4

Flower and season tiles

Flowers (Blue)

Seasons (Red) Spring, Summer, Autumn, Winter

These are replacement tiles and are not held in the hand.

Basic Sets & Terminology

Pair: Two identical tiles

Pung: Three identical tiles

Kong: Four identical tiles

Chow: Three consecutive tiles of the same sui

Mixed Chow: Three consecutive tiles using different suits

Crochet: Same number in all three suits

Knit: Same number in two different suits

Setup, Seating, Dealer

- All tiles are placed face down and shuffled.
- Each player builds a wall 18 tiles long and 2 tiles high. (Total 36 tiles)

Building the Wall

- All tiles are placed face down and shuffled.
- Each player builds a wall 18 tiles long and 2 tiles high.
- Each wall contains 36 tiles.

Choosing East (Dealer)

- All players roll dice.
- Highest roll becomes East.
- Seating proceeds counter-clockwise: East → South → West → North

Memory tip: Eat Snacks While Napping

Dealing the Tiles

- East rolls dice again to decide where the wall breaks.
- Tiles are taken in blocks of four, counter-clockwise.
- Each player receives 12 tiles.
- East takes two extra tiles, others take one extra tile.
- Final count:
- East: 14 tiles
- Others: 13 tiles
- Remaining tiles form the playing wall (minimum 7 tiles).

Gameplay

East begins by discarding one tile.

Play moves counter-clockwise.

On each turn, a player:

Draws one tile from the wall

Discards one tile

Calling Tiles

A discarded tile may be called to make;

→Pung

→Kong

→Chow (only from the player on your left)

→Mahjong

Mahjong calls take highest priority.

Once discarded, a tile cannot be taken back.

Rounds

The game consists of four rounds, each with four deals.

East Wind Round ↔ Any Game / Passport

South Wind Round ↔ Small Card / Mahjonggita

West Wind Round ↔ Goulash

North Wind Round ↔ Dealer's Choice

No tile exchanges or buying in this round and no Kongs

Pungs and Pairs of Honour tiles are allowed in sets

Chow can be taken only from the player on your left (rack display)

Pung can be taken from any player's discard (rack display)

The tile to declare Mahjong can be picked from anywhere

If more than one player calls for the same tile, priority is:

Mahjong → Pung → Chow

Knit can be used as the final pair only if you also have a Crochet

Scoring:

500 / 1000 E (Normal Hand) (E = East)

1000 / 2000 E (Concealed Hand: all tiles picked from the wall)

East always gets and gives double

Pair of own / round Flower: 500 from all (including East)

Own Flower: Own Seat number (East = 1, South = 2, West = 3, North = 4)

Round Flower: East = 1, South = 2, West = 3, North = 4

Real Bouquet: 1000 from all (Flowers 1,2,3,4 all red / all blue)

South Wind Round – Small Card or Mahjonggita

Before starting the game

- For small card game, replace Flower tiles as soon as you get them (in order of E-S-W-N)
- For Mahjonggita, it depends on the chosen game

(if flowers are not required in the game, they should be replaced)

Exchange of tiles

Compulsory tile exchange:

Each player gives 3 tiles according to the seating:

- East ↔ South (right) and West ↔ North
- East ↔ North (left) and West ↔ South
- East ↔ West (across) and South ↔ North

Optional tile exchange (to be decided by East)

Tic Tac / Dib Dab / Dotting

- 1 tile each to other players
- Can be done once or three times

Walling

- 3 tiles exchanged with the wall
- Can be done once or three times

Note: Flower wall, Playing wall and own wall are excluded

South Wind Round – Small Card

Count your tiles

- East should have 14 tiles
- All others should have 13 tiles

Rules

- Buying (only from the left) is allowed only in South Wind Round
- Joker may be declared if doubles are rolled on the dice
- Double points if Mahjong is declared on the last tile of the wall

SMALL CARD

- Remove Double Limit cards from the pile (to be used only in North Wind Round with Flowers as jokers)
- Shuffle the remaining cards and place them face-down on the table

Table Rules

Option I

East deals 1 or 3 cards to each player

Option II

Each player chooses 1 or 3 cards from the pile

- Each player follows what is mentioned on the card
- (everyone is assigned a different hand to make)
- In case of 3 cards, players can choose which hand to make
- (this can keep changing throughout the game)

West Wind Round – Goulash

Goulash is a strict, doubles-based Mahjong game.

What Makes Goulash Different?

- Only Pungs and Kongs are allowed
- No Chows, no Crochets, no Knits
- The hand must end in a Pair
- Buying tiles is not allowed
- Flowers are kept concealed until 3rd kong/penalty apply

Before the Game Starts

Flower Tiles

- Replace Flower tiles immediately when picked (E–S–W–N)
- Keep Flowers face down on the left side of the rack
- Flowers remain concealed unless the player is on penalty

Tile Exchange (Same as South Round)

Compulsory Exchange

- East ↔ South (right) and West ↔ North
- East ↔ North (left) and West ↔ South
- East ↔ West (across) and South ↔ North

Optional Exchange (East decides)

- Tic Tac / Dib Dab
- 1 tile each
- Can be done once or three times

Walling

- Each player may exchange 3 tiles with the wall
- Flower wall, Playing wall, and own wall are excluded

West Wind Round - Goulash

Gameplay Rules

No buying allowed

Tiles may only be picked from the wall or claimed as per rules

Kongs in Goulash

Declared (placed on rack, extra tile drawn)

Kept concealed as a Pung

If another player declares Mahjong, a concealed Kong counts as a concealed Pung, not a Kong

Tile Claim Priority

If more than one player calls the same discard:

Mahjong → Kong → Pung

(No Chow calls exist in Goulash)

Dead & Long Hands

A long hand (extra tiles, not in your suit) is considered dead

Player cannot call or declare Mahjong

Player continues playing but is on penalty

A short hand (1 tile short) may be fixed before play begins

Dead hands do not score, even if Mahjong is later formed

Penalty Rules

A player is on penalty if:

- They have 3 exposed Pungs/Kongs on their rack
- They give a tile that allows another player to declare Mahjong

Penalty Effects:

- The penalised player pays for the entire table

If all players are on penalty, it applies to all unless someone is "calling"

West Wind Round – Goulash

Part 1 : Goulash Scoring

Set Type	Explanation	Exposed	Concealed
Pung (Minor)	Pung of Minor tiles (numbers 2–8)	2	4
Pung (Honour / Terminal)	Pung of Honour and/or Terminal tiles	4	8
Kong (Minor)	Kong of Minor tiles (numbers 2–8)	8	16
Kong (Honour / Terminal)	Kong of Honour and/or Terminal tiles	16	32
Flower	Each Flower	4	-
Pair	Pair of Honour and/or Terminal tiles	2	-
Mahjong	Player declaring Mahjong	20	-

Note: A declared Kong counts as 3 tiles but scores as a Kong

West Wind Round - Goulash

Part 2 : Doubles

A hand must have minimum 3 doubles.

Own Wind Pung/Kong
Round Wind Pung/Kong
Dragon Pung/Kong
Terminal Pung/Kong
All Honour hand
Major Hand (Honours + Terminals only)
Presence of all 3 Dragons
Presence of all 4 Winds
Mahjong on last tile of the game
East Mahjong
Each valid condition doubles the score.

Example of Goulash Scoring:

Basic score: 20 points

Doubles achieved: 3

Final score:

→ $20 \times 2 \times 2 \times 2 = 160$ points

If fewer than 3 doubles → hand is invalid

Key Goulash Principles (Easy to Remember)

No Chows

No Buying

Only Pungs & Kongs

Minimum 3 doubles

Penalties matter

Kongs are powerful but risky

If you need a Kong but only have 3 tiles:

You may pick up the discard as a Pung, display it, and add the 4th tile later

Once a Pung is displayed:

You cannot pick a tile from the centre to upgrade it to a Kong

A displayed Pung can become a Kong only if the 4th tile is self-picked from the wall

→Joker Rules

At least one original tile must be used in any set using jokers

Jokers cannot be used to pick up a tile for a Pung

Jokers can be replaced by original tiles at any time
