Content Lead

2023 — 2026

Three years writing the brand voice of a healthtech category leader — clinical credibility translated into language patients actually trust.

THE BRIEF

What I walked into.

A clinically rigorous product whose communication still read like a research paper. The mandate: keep the rigour, lose the distance — and build a content engine that compounded.

WHAT I DID

The shape of the work.

Wrote and published the Brain Health Playbook — six weeks of editorial work; clinical leads still cite it two years later.

Created the Ivory comic characters and ran them as a Rule-of-Five system across Instagram, YouTube shorts, LinkedIn, podcast clips, and a 3,000-member WhatsApp thread.

Coached the founder into the front of camera; wrote the recurring column that anchored the newsletter.

Built the editorial voice guide and onboarded every new hire to it.

Send the reel (drag to ~/Downloads + tell me) or paste the Instagram carousel URL, plus a one-sentence purpose and 2–4 outcome numbers. I'll wire it in and regenerate the PDF.

WHAT I'D DO DIFFERENTLY

The next time.

Publish the playbook earlier and let it lead the brand. We treated it as a flagship; in hindsight it was the operating system. Every other channel got sharper once it existed.
