Content Writer

2022 — 2023

A year writing for an Islamic-finance fintech serving first-time investors across four markets, where clarity is the most underrated feature.

THE BRIEF

What I walked into.

A product that took compliance seriously and copy lightly. The mandate: translate ethical-finance fundamentals into plain English that a first-generation investor reads without flinching.

WHAT I DID

The shape of the work.

Wrote and produced the Muslim Money Guys podcast — long-form conversations that became the brand's most durable acquisition channel.

Built the plain-English glossary that still ships with the onboarding flow.

Rewrote the onboarding sequence so it reads like a conversation — paragraphs first, disclosures threaded inline.

Authored the weekly market letter — the brand's quietest, highest-trust touchpoint.

PLACEHOLDER · AWAITING ASSET

Your first campaign goes here.

Send the reel (drag to ~/Downloads + tell me) or paste the Instagram carousel URL, plus a one-sentence purpose and 2–4 outcome numbers. I'll wire it in and regenerate the PDF.

WHAT I'D DO DIFFERENTLY

The next time.

Build the glossary before the campaigns. The vocabulary problem ran deeper than the messaging problem — once we named things plainly, the rest of the copy got easy.
